

JOHNS HOPKINS IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

FY 2019

Johns Hopkins Facilities in Montgomery County

Suburban Hospital: Serving Montgomery County

Suburban Hospital is Montgomery County’s designated trauma center, a primary stroke center, a leading provider of services to surgical patients – and one of the County’s largest private employers. Through Potomac Home Health Care (a joint venture with Sibley Memorial Hospital), Suburban also provides home health care to patients throughout the County. Suburban is currently undergoing a major transformation, including a new parking garage for over 1,100 vehicles which opened in July 2017. A new 300,000-square-foot hospital building, with all-private rooms, 14 operating suites, including some equipped for robotic surgery and hybrid imaging, a conference center, and physicians’ offices, will be completed in 2020.

Johns Hopkins in Montgomery County

2,276	JH employees working in the County
4,450	County residents employed by JH
$373M	Wages and salaries paid by JH to County residents
907	County residents enrolled at JH
$7.9M	Financial aid to students residing in the County
$182.3M	Paid to Montgomery County suppliers and contractors
486,409	Patient visits by County residents to JH health care providers
$5.2M	Financial assistance provided by Suburban Hospital to uninsured and underinsured patients, FY 2018

Educating County Residents

Number of County residents enrolled at JH, spring 2019	907
JHU undergraduates	108
JHU graduate/professional	799
Number of degrees and certificates awarded to County residents, 2018-19	334
Number of JH alumni living in Montgomery County, as of FY 2019	15,994
Financial aid from University sources to students residing in Montgomery County, FY 2019	$7,894,890

Delivering Health Care

Number of JH patient encounters involving County residents, FY 2019	486,409
Number of inpatient discharges of County residents from JHHS hospitals	17,432
Number of outpatient visits by County residents to JHHS hospitals	125,304
Number of emergency visits to JHHS hospitals by County residents	36,131
Number of patient visits to JHCP primary and specialty care centers by County residents	204,882
Number of County residents served by JH Clinical Practice Association	93,570
Number of County residents served by JH Home Care Group	6,483
Number of County residents served by Potomac Home Health Care	2,607
Number of participants in JHHC health plans living in Montgomery County, FY 2019	32,590

Johns Hopkins in the Community

Number of JH students serving internships at schools/institutions in the County, 2016-17	57
Value of community benefits (including financial assistance, community health services, education of health professionals, etc.) provided by Suburban Hospital, FY 2018	$24,961,004
Value of financial assistance provided by Suburban Hospital to uninsured and underinsured patients, FY 2018	$5,176,153

Examples of Innovative Montgomery County Companies with Ties to Johns Hopkins

Precision Medicine Group, Bethesda, founded by a JH alumnus, provides consulting and support services for pharmaceutical and life sciences companies in the field of precision medicine

NexImmune, Gaithersburg, is developing immunotherapy treatments for cancer and other diseases based on technology licensed from JH

Insilico Medicine, Rockville, founded by a JH alumnus, is using AI to improve drug discovery and development

Neuraly, Germantown, founded in 2016, is developing new treatments for neurodegenerative diseases, using technology licensed from JH

Mind-X, Bethesda, founded by a JH alum based on technology licensed from APL, is developing brain-computer interface technologies

The Montgomery County Campus: Education, research and entrepreneurship

The Johns Hopkins campus in Rockville offers graduate programs in the arts and sciences, continuing education for seniors, space for start-ups and small companies – with 23 tenants as of mid-2019 – and a wide range of community programs. The Montgomery County Campus is also home to 575,000 square feet of facilities for the National Cancer Institute. A new 75,000-square-foot building will be completed in 2020.